

Ladies and Gentlemen: Start your planning.

The CADL is proud to present this year's CNAC. It will be held at the Sanair Motorsport Complex (www.sanairracing.com) in St-Pie, QC, 40min. from Montreal, on July 16-17-18 2004.

This will be your chance to come rub cones against our nation's best. It's also dedicated to every autocross enthusiast and any skill level competitor. The more cone lovers we are, the more fun will have.

Bring your family and friends for THE event of THE year. The CADL is inviting everyone to come enjoy a beautiful week-end of racing. This is an event you don't want to miss. The CADL is dedicated to bring you a memorable week-end.

July 16 will be registration and a test & tune day. Competition will be held on July 17-18. CADL is still working on the full week-end schedule, which should be provided shortly.

Accommodation possibilities will be close by, including camping, hotels and motels. Info and prices will be provided shortly.

For extra information, questions, concerns or anything short of an argument from getting you to attend this amazing opportunity, please visit our website www.cadl.qc.ca and in our forum there's a section dedicated to the event.
